

Fellowship Program

Frequently Asked Questions

How many Fellowships are available?

There is one Fellowship available for 2014.

How long is the Fellowship, and when does it start?

The Fellowship is for one year and it commences February 2014.

When is the Fellowship application deadline?

Your online application must be submitted by midnight on 1 November 2013.

For when are the interviews planned? Can I interview if I am not in Sydney?

We are planning to hold the Fellowship interviews on 9 November 2013. Please save the date in case you are selected to interview. We don't want any short-listed candidates to miss out on the interviews - if you are unable to interview in Sydney we will make interviews by Skype available and will aim to make other interview options available if needed.

When will I find out if I got the Fellowship?

We will be announcing the successful Fellowship candidate before Christmas.

How much will I be paid if I do the Fellowship?

The Fellowship is a paid position and will include Superannuation. The successful candidate will be paid competitively with what they are able to make treating on their own. The ranges for Fellowship salaries will be discussed at the interviews, and exact remuneration will be agreed upon with the successful Fellowship candidate. Relocation and housing expenses are not included in the Fellowship.

Do I get to take leave if I do the Fellowship?

Yes, of course. Four weeks paid annual leave are included as part of the Fellowship, as are paid Public Holidays.

Can I apply if I am not an Australian Resident?

Of course! We welcome overseas applicants and will sponsor any successful candidate for an Australian working visa for the period of their Fellowship. We think the Fellowship is a great opportunity for overseas Practitioners to become even more proficient.

Frequently Asked Questions Continued...

I am a Provisional Practitioner and have only been practicing for about a year – is it too early for me to apply?

Not necessarily. If you are dedicated to becoming an exceptional AcuEnergetics Practitioner, you are welcome to apply as long as you have completed your Practitioner qualifications and are keen to participate in the Fellowship.

Can I expect to treat my existing clients if I get the Fellowship?

The Fellow will absolutely be able to treat their existing clients. In fact, we expect the Fellow to continue to attract a robust client base during their Fellowship. The School will set the Fellow session rate, which may be different than your current session rate.

What is required of the Fellow?

Exact details will be agreed upon with the successful candidate. However we endeavor to offer the option of a four or five day a week work schedule for the fellow. This will include giving treatments for the majority of the week - both self managed and guided treatments by Kevin Farrow – as well as time to develop a research project in an area of your interest. The fellowship also includes dedicated weekly one-on-one coaching with Kevin Farrow.

Can I treat at other locations during my Fellowship?

If you accept the Fellowship we expect that 100% of your treatments will be based at the School in Balmain. This is to ensure that Kevin Farrow personally oversees all clients' treatments as part of the Fellowship immersion and to eliminate any perceived conflicts of interest if you treat at other locations.

How will applicants be evaluated?

Applicants will be evaluated on their potential to become exceptional AcuEnergetics Practitioners. Criteria will include: treating experience, leadership potential, involvement in the AcuEnergetics community, ability to attract clients and demonstrated commitment to being a Practitioner.

There will be time for additional Q&A's at the next Practitioner Circle on Wednesday 23rd October 2013, 6.30pm – RSVP essential.
